RECRUITMENT FAIR

Dear Student,

Welcome to the 2015/2016 UCD Michael Smurfit Graduate Business School Recruitment Fair.

In today's job market it is more important than ever to present future employers with a first class combination of academic achievement and professional skills.

Through networking effectively at this event, you will be able to identify potential employment opportunities, gain an insight into different industry sectors and understand the skills employers expect students to display during the recruitment process.

The Career Managers in the Smurfit Career Development Centre will provide you with support throughout the year to help you recognise and develop the skills employers seek in today's competitive jobs market.

We would like to take this opportunity to wish you well as you plan your move from the Smurfit Business School into employment.

Best wishes,

Cathy Savage

Senior Manager, Career Development & Skills
UCD Michael Smurfit Career Development Centre

ACCA

9th OCTOBER

Why register with ACCA? Stand out from the crowd - You will show potential employers that you are on your way to studying a professional qualification, a great way to stand out from other applicants. Beat the competition - You will have a competitive advantage in interviews against candidates who are not registered to do a professional qualification. Boost your CV - Make your resume shine by showing you are on the path to gaining an industry specific qualification. Increase your earning potential - Being an ACCA student will give you grounds to negotiate a better salary. Plus, once you are employed, your employer may cover the costs for your future training; you will be a chartered certified accountant, with endless employment opportunities.

Application procedure: Apply directly to employers listed in our graduate guide, cover letters should specify that you are looking for a place on the graduate scheme to train to be an accountant in either finance or accounting and sit professional accountancy exams.
