	Gastrointestinal and Genitourinary Structure	(5)
	Gastrointestinal and Renal Disease	(5)
Gastrointestinal and Renal Pharmacology	(5)
Gastrointestinal and Renal Physiology	(5)
Endocrine System in Health and Disease	(5)
Haematology and Immunosuppression	(5)
Student-selected option	(5)
Reproduction, Psychology and Child Health	(5)
Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology	(5)
Professional Clinical Practice	(5)
Oncology and Immunopathology	(5)
Disability	(5)
Neurology in Health and Disease	(10)
Advanced Clinical Skills	(10)
