

Building	Location	Type	Contact	Access
Woodview (Prayer room)	It is found on the path in front of the Health science and Conway building if you follow it to the right. There is a bush around it, can be easy to walk past if you don't know it's there, so maybe pictures of the building from the path could be useful to have on the website.	It is a Muslim prayer space.	Islamic Society <islamic@ucdsocieties.ie>	Booking is not required.  In case the room is locked, please knock on the door and wait for someone to open the door.  UCD Islamic society members have the code to enter.
The contemplation room	The contemplation room is attached to the side of St. Stephens Chaplaincy, over by the lake and Confucius Center.	Christian faith space.	Becky Heaslip <becky.heaslip@ucd.ie>	Booking is not required.  A separate side entrance and is open from 8am-9pm every day during term time for any staff or student to use.
Blackrock Capus	Located through an external door in Block E	A multi faith room	services.blackrock@ucd.ie (01) 716 8908	Booking is not required.  In case the room is locked, please talk to the estate services desk that manages the key and can open it at any stage.
James Joyce Library	Level 2 of the James Joyce Library (Room 206).	A quiet multi faith room is available for prayer and contemplation. This room is open to any student or staff working in the Library who is seeking a place to pray, meditate, or reflect.	Please direct any questions to the Welcome Desk on Level 1.	There is no key, code or booking required. It is freely accessible to anyone using the Library Booking is not required.
Our Lady Seat of Wisdom church	Across from the student services and science building	It is a Christian prayer space	Becky Heaslip <becky.heaslip@ucd.ie>	Booking is not required.  It is a Christian prayer space which is open from 8am -7pm every day. It's open to the public, so staff and students can drop in anytime. During term time mass is at 12:05-12:30 Mon-Fri and Sunday @11am during term time.