

'Roots in the Air: Multilingualism and Displacement' Workshop

Tuesday, 21st May, 9.30am-12.45pm

C001, ground floor, Agnes McGuire Social Work Building

Programme

[15/20 min per presentation + Q&A/discussion]

- 9:30-9:45am Introduction by Bianca Cataldi (HI) and Till Greite (HI/SAS):
Three Opening Remarks / On Andrei Tarkovsky's 'Nostalgia'
- 9:45-10:15am Michael Cronin (Trinity): The Connected Migrant: Presencing, Access, and The Figures of Translation
- 10:15-10:45am Esther Kilchmann (Hamburg): Post-Traumatic Creativity:
Forced Multilingualism in German Exile Literature

10:45-11:00am Coffee break [Humanities Institute / top floor foyer]

- 11:00-11:30am Steffan Davies (Bristol): Humanism, Language and Languages:
Heinrich Mann's 'Henri IV'
- 11:30am-12:00pm Till Greite (HI/SAS): (Bridging) the Great Gap: Michael Hamburger on Bilingualism as Affliction and Literary Practice
- 12:00-12:45pm Roundtable (with inputs by Joseph Twist and Paolo Acquaviva, both UCD)

Workshop organisers:

Bianca Cataldi (UCD Humanities Institute TNH Research Project Lead): bianca.cataldi@ucd.ie

Till Greite (UCD Humanities Institute Visiting Fellow): till.greite@ucd.ie

EVENTBRITE registration link

The workshop is supported by the
UCD Humanities Institute (Transnationalising the Humanities Project | TNH)

UCD Humanities Institute
Institiúid don Léann Daonna UCD