

11TH NORTH SOUTH
IRISH CRIMINOLOGY
CONFERENCE

New Frontiers in Criminology

UCD Sutherland School of Law
6-7 September 2018

Thursday 6 September 2018

11.30 – 12.30 Registration (Atrium)

12.30 – 14.00 Opening Session (Mason Hayes Curran Theatre)

OPENING REMARKS

Orla Feely, UCD Vice President for Research, Innovation and Impact

KEYNOTE ADDRESS 1: Traces of Violence: Representing the Atrocities of War

Eamonn Carrabine, University of Essex

14.00 – 15.30 Parallel Panel 1

1A. CAPITAL PUNISHMENT SYMPOSIUM (Harty Boardroom)

Execution in Seventeenth-Century Dublin: Bishops, Sodomites, and Theocratic Fanatics

Coleman A Dennehy, University College Dublin

Murder, Capital Punishment, and the Irish in Scotland, 1864 to 1914

Lynsey Black, University College Dublin

A ‘Matter for the Consideration of the Executive Alone’: Narratives of Mercy in the Cases of Women Sentenced to Death in New York City and London, 1880-1914

Rian Sutton, University of Edinburgh

An Interfering Judge, a Biddable Executive, and an Unbroken Neck

Ian O’Donnell, University College Dublin

1B. PLURAL POLICING AND THE FIELD OF SECURITY: OBSERVATIONS AND EARLY FINDINGS FROM STUDIES OF RURAL AND URBAN SECURITY (L249)

The Emerging Security Field?

Matt Bowden, Dublin Institute of Technology

Safety, Assemblages and Urban Security Governance: Some Early Findings

Matt Bowden and Derek Dodd, Dublin Institute of Technology

‘Three-sided Match’ – Crime, Risk and Resilience in the Countryside: Preliminary Observations

Artur Pytlarz, Dublin Institute of Technology

IC. CAPTURE, COOPTATION OR COEXISTENCE? EXPLORING VOLUNTARY SECTOR FUTURES IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE IN IRELAND (AND ELSEWHERE) (L248)

Voluntary Sector Adaptation to Mixed Penal and Resettlement Markets: The England and Wales Experience

Mary Corcoran, University of Keele

Transforming Rehabilitation? The Penal Voluntary Sector in Ireland

Deirdre Healy, University College Dublin

Marketising the Irish Criminal Justice Voluntary Sector through ‘Commissioning Human, Social and Community Services’: Paranoia or Justified Caution?

Katharina Swirak, University College Cork

‘Crime’ Prevention in the Community: A Contested Site? An Exploration of Community-based Responses to ‘Crime’ at a Time of Social Conflict and Social Change

Féilim Ó hAdhmaill, University College Cork

Reclaiming Governance as Empowerment

Seán Redmond, University of Limerick

1D. CHILDREN WITH INCARCERATED PARENTS (L247)

Paternal Incarceration: Impacts on the Academic Lives of Primary and Pre-school Children in Ireland

Ashling Ryan-Mangan, Trinity College Dublin

Children of Imprisoned Mothers: The Irish Case

Sinead O’Malley, National University of Ireland, Galway

Developing a Child Rights Based Approach to Children Affected by Parental Imprisonment: Thoughts from Ireland

Aisling Parkes, University College Cork

Unseen, Unheard: Developing an Irish Response to Promote and Protect the Rights of Children with a Parent in Prison

Fiona Donson, University College Cork

1E. ETHNICITY AND THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM (L246)

Black Ethnic Minority Careers in the Irish Police: Evaluating the Dynamics of Cultures in Policing

Adeyemi Adekanle, Dublin Institute of Technology

Indigenous Criminology and European Indigenous Peoples

Denis Bracken, University of Manitoba

Anti-Roma Violence Cases before the European Court of Human Rights

Norah Burns, University of Limerick

Family Contact for Irish Prisoners in the UK

Paul Gavin, Bath Spa University

15.30 – 16.00 COFFEE BREAK (Atrium)

16.00 – 17.30 Parallel Panel 2

2A. CAPITAL PUNISHMENT SYMPOSIUM (Harty Boardroom)

‘An Offence Formerly Unknown in this Part of the United Kingdom: Robbery and the Death Penalty in Early Nineteenth-century Scotland’

Rachel Bennett, University of Warwick

“Every Page of our Statute Book Smelt of Blood”: Current Research on the Bloody Code

John Walliss, Liverpool Hope University

Lived Experiences of Black and Minority Ethnic (BME) People Sentenced to Death in England and Wales, 1900-65

Lizzie Seal, University of Sussex

2B. APPLICATIONS OF LEGITIMACY AND PROCEDURAL JUSTICE IN THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND SHADOW CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM IN IRELAND (L249)

Legitimacy and Procedural Justice in the Irish Criminal Courts

Niamh Maguire, Waterford Institute of Technology

Procedural Justice and Legitimacy in Irish Prisons

Deirdre Atkins, Waterford Institute of Technology

Legitimacy and Fairness in Door Supervisors’ Approaches to the Regulation of Alcohol-related Public Order Offences

Kirsty Doyle, Waterford Institute of Technology

Constructing the Offender: Legitimacy and Fairness in the Production of Pre-sentence Reports

Jean Anne Kennedy, Waterford Institute of Technology

Benefit Sanctions: Procedural Justice and the Question of Legitimacy

Kenny Doyle, Waterford Institute of Technology

2C. PRACTICAL STEPS TOWARD EVIDENCE INFORMED YOUTH JUSTICE POLICY PROGRAMMES AND PRACTICE IN IRELAND – THE REPPP PROJECT CONTRIBUTION (L248)

REPPP – An Innovative Government/Academic Partnership to Encourage a Rational Approach to Youth Crime Policy, Programmes and Practice in Ireland

Seán Redmond (University of Limerick) and Brendan Sheehy (Irish Youth Justice Service)

Improving the Measurement of Effectiveness in the Irish Youth Justice System

John Reddy, University of Limerick

Exploring the ‘Black Box’ of the Frontline Professional and Young Person Relationship in Youth Justice Settings. An Example of a Modified Realist Synthesis Approach

Deirdre Fullerton, University of Limerick

Combining Realist and Experimental Designs to Programme Evaluation – A New Approach to Programme Governance and a Fairer Deal for Practice

Catherine Naughton, University of Limerick

The Greentown Project – An Irish Evidence Informed Response to Reducing the Influence of Criminal Networks on Children

Seán Redmond, University of Limerick

2D. LIFE IN AND BEYOND THE PRISON (L247)

Rejected, Removed, Forgotten? Post-Deportation Experiences of Polish Ex-Prisoners Removed from the UK

Witold Klaus (Polish Academy of Sciences) and Agnieszka Martynowicz (Edge Hill University)

Resistance, Repression and Resilience: The Evolution and Disappearance of Prisoners’ Rights Movements

Cormac Behan, University of Sheffield

‘Can’t Hack the Whack’: Exploring Young Men’s Experiences of Time in Prison through the Lens of Critical Masculinities Studies

Conor Murray, Ulster University

Confronting Penal Excess: Proportionality and Penal Minimalism

David Hayes, University of Sheffield

2E. WHITE COLLAR CRIME (L246)

An Empirical Analysis of Punishment for Federal White Collar Crimes in the US

Deirdre Healy and Joe McGrath, University College Dublin

White Collar Wrongdoing and the Criminal Process

Shane Kilcommins, University of Limerick

Sentencing White-Collar and Corporate Crime

Tom O'Malley, NUI Galway

18.00 – 19.30 BOOK LAUNCH (Atrium)

Friday 7 September 2018

9.00 – 9.30 Registration (Atrium)

9.30 – 10.30 Opening Session (Mason Hayes Curran Theatre)

KEYNOTE ADDRESS 2: Seeing, Hearing and Challenging Pervasive Punishment

Fergus McNeill (University of Glasgow) and Louis Abbott (Vox Liminus)

10.30 – 12.00 Parallel Panel 3

3A. ENCOUNTERING PRISONS FROM DIVERSE PERSPECTIVES (L249)

Starting Out: The Challenges and Benefits of Conducting Prison Research

Sophie van der Valk, Trinity College Dublin

Student Experiences of Prison-Based Education

Anne O'Grady, Paul Hamilton, Paul Bermingham, Nottingham Trent University

Notes from an Ethiopian Prison

Ian O'Donnell, University College Dublin

“That’s My Story, I Can’t Change it”: Living on Licence: An Exploration of the Learning Experiences of Life Sentence Prisoners

Lisa Cuthbert, PACE

3B. CRIMINAL JUSTICE EDUCATION (L248)

Observations on the Challenges of Educating Recruit Prison Officers in Ireland

Geraldine Cleere, Waterford Institute of Technology

A New Paradigm for Prison Library Research? Examining the Role of Library Services during Imprisonment

Jayne Finlay, Ulster University

Compelled by an Emotional Economy of Care: Explorations of the Youth Justice Student ‘Career’

Ricky Gee, Nottingham Trent University

Hate Crime on Campus: Introducing a Forum Theatre Approach to Enhance Student Engagement

Jane Healy and James Palfreman-Kay, Bournemouth University

Product, Process and Planning – The Reconceptualisation of Initial Police Training through a Problem-Based Pedagogy
Gráinne M Jennings, University of Limerick

3C. EXPERIENCING CRIMINAL JUSTICE (L247)

“From Disaster to Master:” One Man’s Journey from the Depths of Despair to the Joys of Life
Wayne Hart

Irish Criminal Justice: An Innovative Approach
Tina Cronin

Systemic Reflections: An Examination of Theory and Application of Systemic Practice as a Useful Resource for Criminal Justice Practitioners
Niall Reynolds, Social Care Manager and Systemic Family Psychotherapist

Convict Criminology: Exploring the User Voice
David Williamson, Probation Service

3D CRIME VICTIMS (L246)

Rape Myth Acceptance in Mock Sexual Assault Scenarios: An Assessment of Participant Gender and Victim-Blame Attribution
Greg Anderson, University College Dublin

Twelve Angry (Wo)men Gone Wrong - Exploring the Possibility of Eliminating Jury Trials in Rape Cases
Sarah Bryan O’Sullivan, Griffith College Dublin

Exposing Unique Methods of Disability Hate Crime and Their Impact on Victims
Jane Healy, Bournemouth University

‘I Felt Like She Owns Me’: Exploitation and Uncertainty in the Lives of Labour Trafficking Victims in Ireland
Muiread Murphy and David Doyle, Maynooth University

3E YOUTH JUSTICE (L244)

Disruption in the Field: Youth Detention and Security through a Bourdieusian Lens
Andy Bray, Dublin Institute of Technology

‘Contrasts in Tolerance?’ A Cross-Sectoral Analysis of Punitiveness in the Adult and Youth Justice Systems in Ireland, Germany and Scotland
Siobhán Buckley, Maynooth University

Youth Detention: Implementing Children’s Rights Standards from Within

Ursula Kilkelly, University College Cork

Reducing Youth Crime: The Role of Mentoring

Kieran O’Dwyer

12.00 – 13.00 LUNCH (Atrium)

12.00 – 13.00 ROUNDTABLE: THE DYNAMICS OF POLICE REFORM IN CONTEMPORARY IRELAND (L249)

Participants:

Matt Bowden, Dublin Institute of Technology

Vicky Conway, Dublin City University

Aogán Mulcahy, University College Dublin

Johnny Connolly, University of Limerick

13.00 - 14.30 Parallel Panel 4

4A. PRISONS: THE RULE OF LAW, ACCOUNTABILITY AND RIGHTS (PRILA) (L249)

The Oversight of Prisons: International Human Rights Frameworks and Connecting to Practice

Mary Rogan, Trinity College Dublin

Under Scrutiny: Accountability Mechanisms in the Prison Context

Sarah Curristan, Trinity College Dublin

Prisoners and Accountability: The Tensions and Limits of the Prison Environment

Sophie van der Valk, Trinity College Dublin

Culture and Accountability: The Prison Officer Experience of Oversight

Ray O’Keeffe, Trinity College Dublin

4B. DESISTANCE AND REHABILITATION (L248)

Masculinity and Violence in Working-class Communities: The Impact on Persistence and Desistance

Graham Cambridge, University College Cork

Barriers to Participation in Prison Education

Geraldine Cleere, Waterford Institute of Technology

The Reality of Desisting from Crime

Nicola Hughes, Dublin Institute of Technology

Cultural Scripts and the Construction of Offender/Desister Identities

Dana Segev, University of Sheffield

4C. RESPONDING TO THE CHALLENGES OF IMPRISONMENT (L247)

Improvement of the Effectiveness of Prison Standards and the Role of Monitoring Bodies

Ana Fernanda Neves, Lisbon University

Closed Institutions, Legal Mobilisation, and the Public-Sector Duty in Ireland

John Lynch, University College Dublin

‘Behind the Door’: Solitary Confinement in the Irish Prison System

Agnieszka Martynowicz (Edge Hill University) and Linda Moore (Ulster University)

“We’re Not in Limerick Any More”: Parental Incarceration and the Institutional Failure of Prisons

Jill McCorkel, Villanova University

4D. RESTORATIVE JUSTICE AND COMMUNITIES (L246)

Building Community Resilience: Responding to Criminal Networks in Dublin South Central

Johnny Connolly, University of Limerick

Participation in Youth Justice: The Potential of Family Conferencing

Norma Kennedy and Mairead Seymour, Dublin Institute of Technology

Developing International Instruments for Restorative Justice

Ian D Marder, Maynooth University

A Restorative Justice Perspective to Ethics in Commercial Organisations

Razwana Begum Bt Abdul Rahim, Singapore University of Social Sciences

4E UNDERSTANDING CRIME AND VIOLENCE (L244)

Developing a Feminist Theory of Female Violence

Harriet Burgess, Court of Appeal (Criminal Division)

Digital Deviance: Gadflies, Trojan Horses and Harmonious Cyber Cows

James Cuffe, University College Cork

PERICLES: Policy Recommendation and Improved Communication Tools for Law Enforcement and Security Agencies Preventing Violent Radicalisation

Brendan Marsh, Trinity College Dublin

A Review of Organised Crime Research Data Collection and Analysis Methods, and Authorship, 2004-2018

James Windle, University College Cork

14.30 – 16.00 Parallel Panel 5

5A. CRIMINAL JUSTICE DECISION-MAKING (L249)

Structuring Sentencing in an Individualised System: Striking a Balance between the Principle of Individualised Justice and the Development of Structured Sentences in the Republic of Ireland

Hanna Byrne, Law Reform Commission of Ireland

Assuming the Best or Explaining Everything: Divergent Approaches to Jury Trials in an Empirical Study of Irish Judges

Mark Coen and Niamh Howlin, University College Dublin

An Garda Síochána's Public Attitudes Survey: A Move Towards a Multidimensional Approach to Measuring Police Performance

Kate O'Hara, An Garda Síochána Analysis Service

Gendered Perspectives: Practitioner Perceptions of Male and Female Offenders

Louise Rooney, University College Dublin

5B. PRISON STAFF PRACTICES, SENSIBILITIES AND TRADITIONS (L248)

'It's a Blame Game': Irish Prison Staff Experiences of Investigative Mechanisms for Prisoner Deaths in Custody

Colette Barry, Sheffield Hallam University

Occupational Cultures and Identity in Prison Work

Joe Garrihy, University College Dublin

What We Have Here is a Failure to Communicate: Understanding Prolific Punishment Cycles in Prison as Transactions

Shadd Maruna and Michelle Butler, Queen's University Belfast

Discretionary Discipline? Staff Discretion and Prison Discipline in Irish Prisons

Aoife Watters, Dundalk Institute of Technology

5C. HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES ON PRISONS, PROBATION AND PAROLE (L247)

Pastoral Penalty: Exploring Imprisonment and Political Culture in 1970s Ireland

Louise Brangan, University of Edinburgh

Early Histories of Probation Practice in Ireland: ‘Plus Ça Change, Plus C'est la Môme Chose’

Louise Kennefick and Niamh Wade, Maynooth University

James P. Organ, the ‘Irish System’ and the Origins of Parole

Gerry McNally, Probation Service

5D. LEGAL AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE PERSPECTIVES (L246)

“You Spoke Up for Me” – Solicitors’ Experiences in Garda Interrogations

Yvonne Marie Daly and Vicky Conway, Dublin City University

Irish Probation Journal: Connecting Across Frontiers

Ursula Fernée and Gail McGreevy, Probation Service

Reforming the Community Service Order in Ireland

Eoin Guilfoyle, University of Limerick

It’s in (the Management of) our DNA: A Qualitative Content Analysis of the Development of the Irish DNA Database System

Lauren J O’Connell, University College Dublin

5E. MENTAL AND PHYSICAL HEALTH (L244)

A Human Rights Perspective on Drug Services

Richard Healy, Maynooth University

A Socio-Ecological Analysis of the Recreational Consumption of Psychoactive Medication among Imprisoned Men in the North of Ireland

Ruari-Santiago McBride, University of Limerick

Bearing Witness to Trauma among Offenders

Jane Mulcahy, Cork Alliance Centre/ University College Cork

ADHD and the Irish Criminal Justice System: The Question of Inertia

Etain Quigley (Maynooth University) and Blánaid Gavin (University College Dublin)

16.00 – 16.30 Closing Address (Mason Hayes Curran Theatre)

Ivana Bacik, Seanad Eireann and Trinity College Dublin